

From: Donald Lawn
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 12/6/01 12:08pm
Subject: Penalize Microsoft

Justice Department,

I am saddened that the Justice Department has fallen to political pressure and dropped it's case against Microsoft, requiring the affected states to maintain the suit to stop this monopoly from crushing innovation. For the Justice Department to cave into political demands from monied interests for an abandonment of this very strong case simply shows that when money talks, the Justice Department listens.

Too bad I'm not wealthy enough to but a verdict in my favor.

Donald Lawn
206-285-5623